STRAWBERRIES

Large Crops This Year and Will Last Two Weeks Longer.

Hopkinsville is now right in the middle of the strawberry season. The crop this year could not be better in quality and they are about the average in size, though the yield per acre has been not so full as last year.

A dispatch sent out from Trezevant, Tenn., tells of a berry that measured 6.1-8 inches round the largest part, and was considered a record breaker. Three years ago Mr. W. R. Brumfield brought to the city a berry that measured 6.1-2 inches. He has berries this year that will push the 6-inch mark mighty close. He does not grow many berries of the early varieties, preferring the late ones. He says his crop will last for two weeks longer.

Humboldt, Tenn., shipped more berries this year than for 20 years. Three solid trains of berries, 42 cars, were shipped from there last Monday. Up to the 13th of this month the berry shipments had brought the growers $125,000.

Bob Taylor Lives,

In the two bright and beautiful books just issued, "Lectures on Best Literary Productions," and "Life and Career" of Senator Robert Love Taylor, handsomely illustrated, you cannot hear again his voice or see the humorous curl of his lips, that convulsed a continent with laughter, but, within the covers of these volumes, are the pictures woven of his wondrous words, and, laughing through their sunny pages, are all of the inimitable stories which he told to the multitudes. In "Life and Career," pens of genius have traced his romantic life from its morning in "Happy Valley," through his young and roseate dreams, through stress and storm, through cheering throngs, and on into the waiting shadows, loved and laurel crowned.

We expect to sell millions of these books. First edition going fast. Cloth, $2 the Volume, $4 the Set. Half Morocco, $2.75 the Volume, $5 the Set, Full Morocco, $5.50 the Volume, $10 the Set. The people want them. A harvest for Agents. Liberal commissions. Address, Terry T. Martin, Gen. Mgr. of Ky. Care Box 6, Hopkinsville, Ky. Advertisement.
